CITY MAP OF COCHIN

FOREWORD

In this Guide we have made an attempt to provide useful information regarding the rapidly developing City of Cochin for the benefit of tourists and business community. Some places of importance for visit are also given in order to enable the visitors to have a general idea about the other interesting places in Kerala. The City Map attached to the Guide would be found useful to the visitors. Since the formation of the Cochin Corporation we have made an earnest endeavour to bringout a hand-book for the benefit of the incomers to the City. We feel happy to state that this small book is the fruit of our cherished desire. Any-how, we do not make any undue claim that it is perfect or elaborative in all details But an honest attempt has been made to make it as handy and comprehensive as possible. We also do not lay any claim that it is completely free from shortcomings or inaccuracies. We earnestly solicit the unstinted co-operation of our well-wishers to bring to our notice the inaccuracies and omissions found in this Guide for correction in our subsequent editions.

It gives us much pleasure to place on record our sincere thanks to all those who have encouraged and co-operated with us in this humble venture by providing us with necessary details, suggestions and informations. We are also grateful to those who have contributed advertisements to this Guide.

The Cochin City

THE CITY OF COCHIN is a compact unit of three towns together with a few picturesque islands occupying a pivotal position in the state of Kerala. On the mainland is Ernakulam, an elegant town, which once adorned the Capital of the former Cochin State; presently the Judiciary Capital of the State. It is around this town the industrial belt and big factories are chiefly concentrated. Willingdon Island is surrounded by back-waters, a fast developing place with dock-yards on either side of Cochin Port. This is a man-made island. On the Western side of Willingdon Island is Mattancherry, a bee-hive of business place. In the heart of the bazar could be seen the historically famous 'Coonan-Cross'. Further, West is Fort-Cochin, with its towering Light House lending beauty and distinction to the "Queen of Arabian Sea"

THE COCHIN CITY was formed on 1-11-1967 by corporating the three Municipalities of Ernakulam, Mattancherry, Fort Cochin and Willingdon Island. The population is about 5 lacs with an area of 83,524 sq. Kms. (32.26 sq. Miles). The area covers the places of Ernakulam, Mattancherry, Fort Cochin, Willingdon Island, Palluruthy, Edappally, Vyttila, Vennala, Gundu Island, Raman Thuruthu, Thandonni Thuruthu, Vimana Thuruthu. The western side of the City ends at Arabian Sea, East with boundary upto Kaniyampuzha Thodu of Vyttila, upto Edappally bridge on the Northern side and upto Kumbalam ferry and Edacochin on the Southern side.

PLACES OF INTEREST

Bolghatty Palace

This palace was built by the Dutch in Bolghatty Island lying north-west to Ernakulam, now converted into a Tourist Bungalow. Motor boats are available for the visitors. The British Resident was staying here before the days of Indian Independence.

Jewish Synagogue

The Cochin Synagogue was built about 400 years ago in 1568 and is situated at Mattancherry very near to the boat jetty. The floor tiles of the Synagogue were specially imported from China and they are of willow pattern. In 7th century the then king of Cranganore assigned land to the Jews. The record of the grant is inscribed on copper plate and is preserved here. The great leather rolls (parchment) are carefully kept for exhibition in the Synagogue. Visiting hours—from 09.00 to 12.00 and 15.00 to 18.00 hrs. and will be closed on Saturdays and on Jewish Holidays.

Dutch Palace

It is located near the Mattancherry boat jetty and is decorated exquisitively with some large size 17th century Murals depicting some scenes of Ramayana and few from Indian Mythology. Open from 08 30 to 12.30 hrs. and 14.00 to 17.00 hrs. ~~and will be closed on Mondays and national holidays.~~

St. Francis Church at Fort Cochin

This was built about 460 years back in 1510 and is believed to be the oldest European church in India. Some 200 years of old records of marriages and baptisms can be seen in this church. It is here that the mortal remains of Vasco-de-Gama, was laid to rest in 1524 after his death at Calicut, and later the body was exhumed and taken back to Lisbon.

Santa Cruz Cathedral

Some rare and fine paintings are on the ceiling of this church by European artists, which are of great artistic value.

Chinese Fishing Nets

A good number of these nets can be seen along the beach side of Fort Cochin and Vypeen. This is quite an uncommon sight except here. These nets are operated according to the tidal currents.

Cultural Centre (See-India Foundation)

"A Date with Traditional Kerala" - Kathakali in traditional settings by renowned artists and Glimpses of Kerala (Parade of costumes, Kerala customs & ceremonies) on every day 7 to 8.30 p.m. except Thursdays. Also Typical Kerala Dinner (Hygenically cooked and served on Banana leaf) 8.30 to 9.30 p.m. on reservation only.
