ABOUT THIS DIRECTORY

The Church of Kerala can be proud of the fact that a vast majority of the Religious Brothers in India are her children. Most of the Religious Brothers outside Kerala are doing substantial service to the people of God and they have been able to create a shining image for their holy Vocation. But it is a sad fact that the number of Religious Brothers in Kerala is very limited and their image in the society is rather dim.

Scattered in various Congregations and fully involved in their apostolates, the Brothers had no opportunity to know each other and to pool their resources for the development of the Church. The First All Kerala Convention of the Religious Brothers (1978) opened the way for the formation of the Kerala Assembly of Religious Brothers (KARB).

While seeking ways and means to solve the various problems before them, KARB felt that a Directory of the Religious Brothers of Kerala would be a medium for mutual understanding and unity. The first edition of the Directory published in 1980 is now out-dated and hence this revised edition is being published.

We have made all possible efforts to collect the updated addresses of all the Religious Brothers in Kerala. But, due to reasons beyond our control, we regret that our attempt was not fully successful.

For the sake of convenience, Congregations and the names of their members are arranged in alphabetical order. Some communities are seen to be very small because only their members working in Kerala have been listed in the Directory.

Readers are requested to forgive any mistakes and shortcomings that might have crept into this booklet. Corrections and directions would be helpful for bringing out a refined edition of the Directory in the to come.

A sincere THANKS to each and everyone who have co-operated with us in the preparation of this Directory.

THE FIRST ALL KERALA CONVENTION OF RELIGIOUS BROTHERS

27 - 29 December, 1978

Sweet Memories

The sweet memories of the First All Kerala Convention of Religious Brothers still linger in the minds of those who participated in the three days sessions at the end of December 1978. The Alwaye Carmelgiri Seminary with its splendid gardens and orchards was an excellent venue for the Convention. The solitude and sanctity of the premises did contribute a lot for the success of the programme.

Make-ready

It was the clarion call of Rev. Fr. Mathew Chowattukunnel, the then Director of Kerala Regional Vocation Service Centre, Bharanganam that awakened the enthusiasm of the Brothers in Kerala to hold a Regional Convention. Several consultation meetings were held in the houses of different communities. A bold step was taken on October 15, 1978 when the general body met at M. M. B. Generalate, Trichur. It was decided to conduct the Convention at the end of December various sub-committees were formed and their duties were assigned.

The Convention

In the evening of December 27, 1978 over 150 brothers belonging to different communities assembled in the Carmelgiri Seminary. It was really a pleasant surprise to see so many of their 'kinsfolk'. Difference of neither dress nor age was able to create any difference among them. All the participants had the same mind and spirit. A feeling of oneness and solidarity prevailed all around.

Rev. Dr. Joseph Kannath, Director, Pastoral Orientation Centre, Cochin, in his inaugural talk shared with the Brothers many substantial ideas for creating a better image about the Religious Brothers. The entertainments after the supper were very interesting and they did a lot to bring about more community feeling.

The sessions of the second day started with the beautiful liturgical celebration led by Fr. Mathew Chowattukunnel. There was ample time amidst the Holy Mass for sharing of prayers. The discussions of the day were centred on the Papers presented by Bros. Michael Thottathil C. S. T., Pious Kizhakumbhagam C. M. S. F. and Mani Mekkunnel S. G. The subjects dealt by them were: 1) Image of Religious Brothers in Kerala and the means to improve it, 2) Theology of Religious Brotherhood and 3) Today's priorities in our message of life. The study of the subjects in groups and in the general assembly helped the brothers to instill a deep awareness about their vital call in the Church of today. They were convinced that the recognition of the world is not a matter to be counted in their pursuit for the treasures of the other world.

A Surprise Visit

Rt. Rev. Dr. James Pazhayattil, Bishop of Irinjalakuda paid a surprise visit at the convention. He told the Brothers that the Church today needs men who have fire in their hearts and wings on their legs. "If Brothers could transform themselves into such standards, there would be no problem in getting more and more Vocations" he added. Evening prayers of the day were organised by Bro. Marian M. M. B.

The Final Day

The third and the final day of the Convention began with the shared meditation led by Bro. Borgia C. S. T. The Eucharistic celebration was officiated by Fr. Jacob Konath who has an excellent style of his own in every word and action of the liturgy.

After the breakfast there came the business meeting. The Drafting Committee presented to the General Assembly the suggestions and recommendations the Convention.

It was unanimously decided to convey a message to the Bishops and Major Superiors of Kerela. The second decision was to form a sort of association for the Brothers, namely, Kerala Assembly of Religious Brothers - KARB. A Follow-up Committee was set up to frame the statutes of the KARB and to implement other resolutions of the Convention.

Encounter Session

An interesting and enlightening item of the forenoon was the Encounter Session. Representatives of different walks of life had been invited for the same. Chevalier K. C. Chacko was the Chairman of the session. Fr, Jacob Aeranat, Mr. Tom Jose, Mr. John Kachiramattom Miss Rosalind Vithayathil and Sr. Surgius CMC presented valuable observations about the Brothers. It was really thought - provoking to hear what all those people think what the Brothers are and what the Brothers should be.

General Assembly

The concluding session of the Convention was a semi-public meeting held under the glorious chairmanship of His Eminence Joseph Cardinal Parecattil. Besides the Brothers, there were some specially invited guests also. Quoting from the Hindu and Christian Scriptures, His Eminence described what a Religious Brother should be in the Indian context of today. He emphasised that in every step towards renovation and updating, the common man's outlook and appraisal must be taken into account.

The talk of Mar Joseph Kundukulam, Bishop of Trichur was keenly attended since he was known to be most interested in Brothers. The talk of the renowned writer Mrs. Annie Thayyil enriched the assembly in various aspects.

The Convention programmes came to a close with supper. When the participants bid farewell to Carmelgiri Seminary they felt that they had accomplished something great.

Message to Bishops and Major Superiors

Relevant portions from the message sent to the Bishops and Major Superiors of Kerala are quoted hereunder.

Observations

"During the Convention we observed that, due to various reasons, the image of the Brothers is very dim in Kerala and as a result of this we have lost hundreds of Brothers' Vocations which would have helped a lot in the building up of Christ's Church in our mother-land. No serious steps have been taken by anybody to remedy this evil. While there are over 2500 Brothers in India, their number in Kerala is just over 300. This is mostly due to the dim image that exists here. We also observed that there exists an inferiority complex among the Brothers in Kerala especially among those in the clerical Congregations.

Suggestions and Requests

In our eagerness to take early and effective steps to improve the image of Brothers, we beg to place before the Ordinaries/Major Superiors Kerala the following suggestions and requests their paternal assistance.

1. We request that the Hierarchy of Kerala be pleased to issue a joint Pastoral Letter about the importance of Brothers' Vocation. In yearly diocesan Pastoral letters and official notifications on Vocations proper mention about the Brothers would be useful.

2. We suggest that effective steps may be taken to enlighten our Clergy, Sisters and Laity on the uniqueness and theological basis of Brothers' Vocation. Audio-visual aids of our catechism departments can be made use of for the matter. Our catechism texts also would be a very good media to carry this message.

3. As we find that some few Congregations are struggling for existence, we like to request that no further attempts for starting new Brothers' Congregations be sanctioned in Kerala. Before giving permission to start new Congregation, a consultation with the Brothers' section of the C.R.I. would be advisable. Following the recommendations of Vatican II, steps may be taken to affiliate dwindling Congregations with other flourishing Congregations.

4. It would be encouraging to give proper representation for the Brothers in the administrative and consultative bodies of Dioceses, Parishes and Congregations.

5. In the spirit of Vatican II and following the practice existing in other parts of the world, active participation can be allowed to the Brothers in the pastoral ministry of the Hierarchy and in administering the sacraments and sacramentals. This will be a great help to the clergy and a bold step for creating a better image about the Brothers.

6. To equip ourselves for better service to the Church of today and to prepare us to face the challenges of tomorrow, we propose to start a common study house for the Brothers where two or three years study be given in theology, liturgy, scripture etc.

7. To project the uniqueness and to uphold the specificity of Brotherhood, steps may be taken to discontinue the seminarians being addressed as 'Brothers'.

8. The Convention has decided to form an association of the Religious Brothers of Kerala as a common forum which will be responsible for the implementation of the decisions and suggestions of the Convention and also to search new areas for the betterment of the Brothers. This association may be linked with the K. C. B. C. and the C. R. I. in course of time so that it may assume an official status".

The KARB

Following the mandate of the Convention, the Follow-up committee framed the statutes of the proposed Kerala Assembly of Religious Brother within two months. Copies of the statutes were circulated among Brothers. By the middle of April 1979 over 150 Brothers joined the Assembly. The First General Body meeting of KARB was held at the Pontifical Seminary, Alwaye, on May 1 and 2. There the statutes were approved with slight modifications and office bearers were elected. Thus one of the dreams of the Regional Convention came into reality in such a short span of time.

His Grace Most Rev. Benedict Mar Gregorios, Archbishop of Trivandrum, the then President of KCBC was the chairman for the concluding session. When he announced that he would be placing the 'message' for discussion at the Bishops' Conference and that he shall be arguing for the Brothers, a great applause arose all over the hall.
